

Daphne Goldberg, M.D., A.B.H.M. Bala Cynwyd, PA Family Medicine, Holistic Medicine

“Through my affiliation with Total Access Medical, I can finally focus on my work with my patients on their journey to health and wellness. At last I can truly incorporate holistic principles and integrative care into my practice. I see my relationship with each of my patients as a partnership. This relationship requires time, devotion and flexibility. I am thrilled to have the unique opportunity to be a truly holistic physician and provide the absolutely highest level of care and dedication.”

A graduate of the University of Pennsylvania and the Medical College of Philadelphia and board certified in Family Medicine and Integrative and Holistic Medicine, Dr. Goldberg is dedicated to providing a full spectrum holistic family practice with a focus on women’s health and obstetrics. She is well known in the Philadelphia area as a patient-centered physician and natural childbirth advocate as well as for having one of the lowest c-section rates in the city. Dr. Goldberg is the co-founder and Associate Medical Director of the Covenant House Health Center, a shelter-based clinic for homeless adolescents. She also teaches a Doctoring course to help medical students learn to be caring physicians, is the course director of electives in Community Oriented Maternity Care as well as the Medical Frontiers course on CAM. In addition to her educational activities at the University of Pennsylvania, Dr. Goldberg has been invited as a guest lecturer on women’s health and holistic medicine at other prominent institutions including Thomas Jefferson University School of Medicine, Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine and Drexel University School of Medicine.
